

1.) Attach doors, lamp shades, & staircases to side panels. I used some super glue.

There should be one extra staircase leftover. We will add that to the front of the assembly later.

2.) Attach extra railing pieces to the panel staircases.

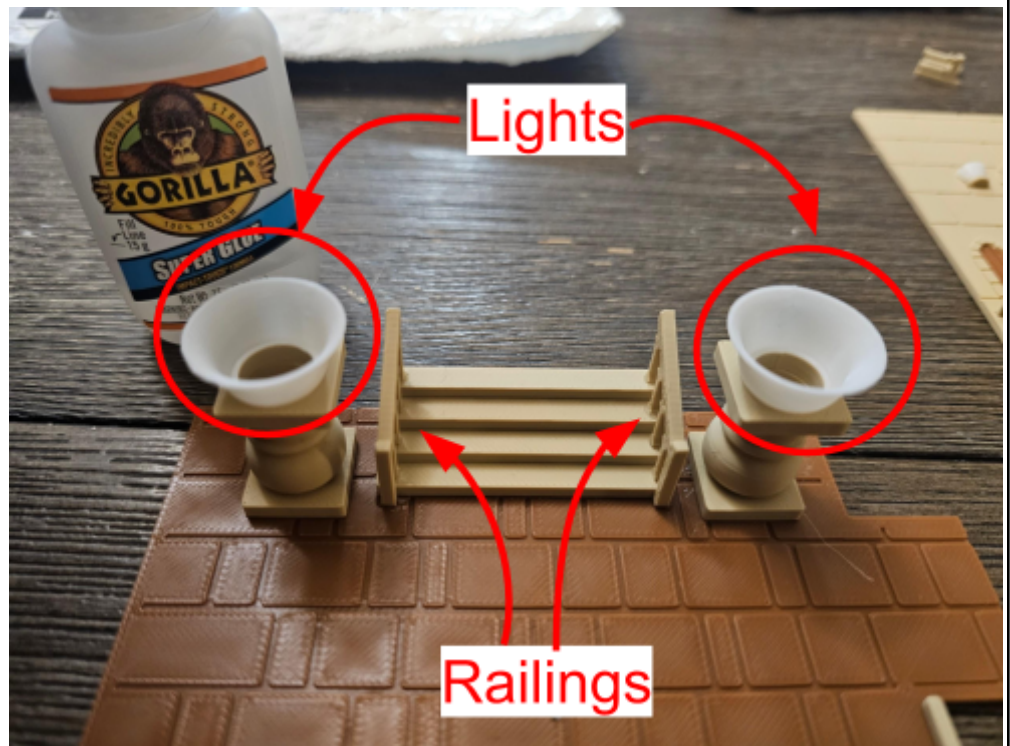

3.) Attach paintings to side panels. I printed paintings onto some glossy photo paper and cut them out.

The framed mini paintings document is linked on the print profile.

4.) Attach light fixtures and back railings to floor panel.

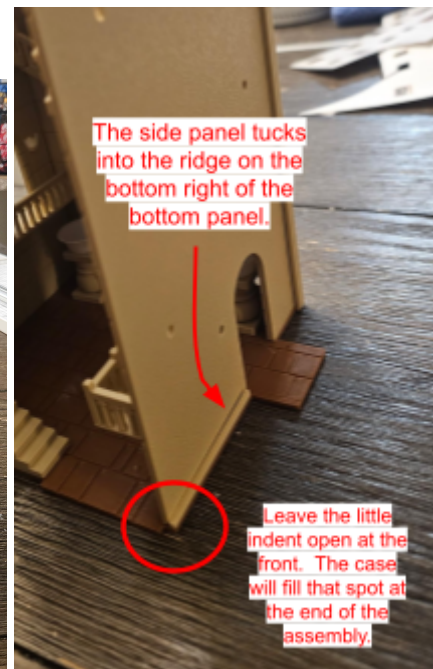

5.) Assemble Side Panels. The side panels will tuck inside the back panel.

The top of the panels should align.

The bottom of the panels will not align.

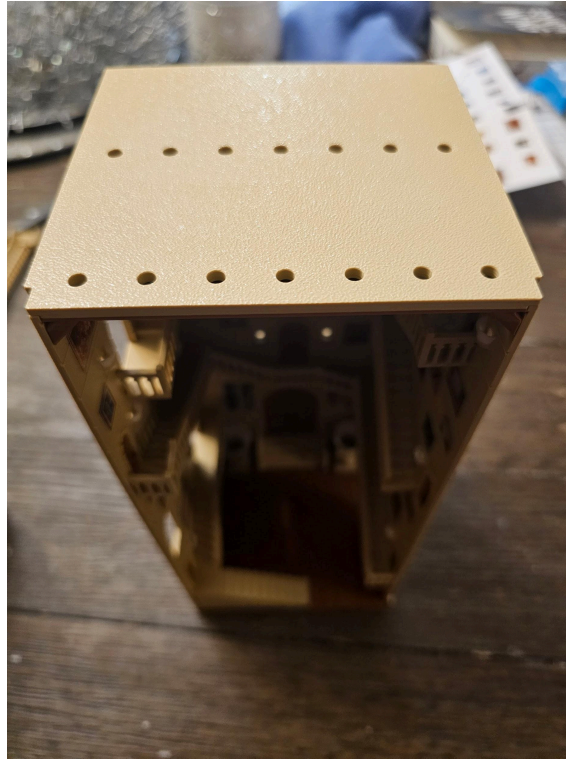

5.) Attach Side panels to bottom panel.

6.) Attach top panel. The holes are at the front.

Holes toward the front.

7.) Attach front floor railings to the front staircase.

8.) Assemble the front staircase by adding the extra railings.

There is a back railing and two small railings for the platform.

9.) Attach Front staircase across the front of the book nook.

10.) Attach hallways to outside of panels.

Holes toward the front.

11.) Insert lights into the holes.
You can use athletic tape or hot glue to hold them in place.

12.) Attach Case. There are ridges in the case which the side panels insert into.

Enjoy!
